

two things were

To my good friend the unusual and of course of the residue of natural oil to complete the result of
on roads, they
to, Erickson very moderate will be
and will ask you
ages of the water, qually with the beauty of the lake Peace to with only,
mason, F.R.G.S., on had promised
to leave off work
year year and then
d. 1882; the fulfilment Erickson replied
in the day to it, while he could
-board, he could at he should like to be transferred to man-of-war will
of Erickson's wishes expressed to his
May, 1882)
E. E. T.

LITERATURE.

papers received by much weeping by the nature of the have trickled into have, have consolidated rivulets, and Howard's boys
as" have rolled in the Kingdom of which Glasgow. We still, peering on the water, are raised
fish newspapers,
he heaving of sea
of the Dresden
Argentine Republi-
"Deplorable Case
Women" "Scene
at Horrors" "A
of Little Calais" Human Misery" Staring in Baron Alton"
will convey to the
that the Argen-
on earth—and all
nary hospitality
at as the hands British immigration
to be considered that in the hundred thou-
and these shores by sion committee"
from the song months, or the
supplied blankets
young and old and young and old
only emigrants
and fed, especially of those and is body to start a
are also the now nobody has cry about the
me and Spaniards, now making and
where the sailors
the Irish papers are against Eng-
and the lawless
where the Irish press

former see lucrative discover a traffic in indeed, that the British Isles and the communities succeeded in meeting the Dredan need—been a great deal been provided and regulation and farms with and, and all necessary to go to the immigration these things and the zeal of the laboration to avoid a repeat of those made by taking all in our center side of the and figure in of one hundred arrived here in the few that because they might have raised any government or natural regulation of monies to talk such traffic, each and any way to to a country of immigrants and per den necessary reasons for government for improvement of immigration Irish colleagues they so much and want to as business in the remember that to country, all and row to the and. Irish and to republic and the, the dip of below 100 million likewise to of land, say the country, Spain, America, Africa, we, represent a The aggregate hands of Irish men, amounts to sterling, figure to plign'. In the

that those thou-
e risen here to e this country
eous circum-
e landed from a period when tion, when rail-
chronic rebel-
life and pro-
that camp that

es—lacked all ake life, even

Patagonia or pioneers had without the Immigration
Immigration
residents.
the trouble of air backs and achea of the etting in the nate amargo"
us bread and
use. Times,
the standard 4 allowances
women accus-
ered in coun-bille has not e existence

the first to t the Irish tion to the e warnings
their deter-

rageous ex-
drawbacks.

at a stop to all means penniless houses in children,
the struggle
without fur-
and health, is ing man, to n, must be
work hard,
Britain, and 100

